At present the home Govorument makes the exaction where it can conveniently do so and allows other Colonies to escape entirely. Thus Cape Colony, Natal, Jamaica, the Windward and Leeward Islands, Bahamas, West Africa, Gibraltar, and Cyprus pay nothing, while the Straits Settlements have to pay 23.24 per cent. of their revenue, Hongkoug 14.58, Covlon friendship which had existed between 3.20, and Mauritius 6.17 per cent. Clearly Russian and Prussian rulers. this arrangement is unjust. It would be equally unjust that the ratep yers of Great Britain should be called upon to bear the whole cost. This is admitted by the Straits. people, who have suggested that the cost of the garrison should be divided in equalshares, the colony paving one half and Great Fontane, Cotta, and Bloudin. Britain the other half. Thus the question reduces itself to one of proportion, but in at- | HONGKONG CORINTHIAN SAILING tempting to fix the proportion we are loft without any well defined principle to guide us. A committee of the Imperial Federation League has proposed that an agreement on the subject should be arrived at by a Conference of representatives of all the Colonies exce the Crown Colonies, which instead having representatives of their own were to be left to the tender mercies of the Secretary of State. On this point we recently commented, urging that the Crown Colonies were entitled to be represented and to have their case placed before the Conference by 5.50 some one in whom they had confidence. If the constitutional crisis threatened in the Straits Settlements takes place it will demonstrate to the home Government and to all who are interested in the welfare of the Colonies the necessity not only of arriving at some equitable agreement in reference to the military contribution question; but also of treating local opinion in the Crown Colonies with greater consideration than has hitherto been the case. The Straits Sattlements may or may not pay more than a reasonable proportion towards the defence of the Empire of which they form a part, but the amount at which they are assessed cannot be regarded by the colonists as just while other Colonies equally well able to pay are allowed to go free. It would only be right that all Colonies should contribute in some fixed proportion to the cost of defence, but by no possible process of reasoning can it be made to appear just that Singapore and Hongkong should be muleted respect-

If a nation's properity may be ganged by the expansion of the volume of its imports and exforeign trade of 1892 with satisfaction. The returns have just been published and the totals other words the rate of increase last your was 1.40 per cent., the greatest advance since 1883. which year showed an exceptional expansion over the previous year. As, however, a larger volume had been obtained in 1891 than in 1888, last year's increase is all the more satisfa tory. It is no sniall success in six years to just double the totals and that is what Japan has achieved, thanks to the assistance of anterprising foreign morehants, and to her own stranuous offerts. Turning to the figures for the ports Yokohama still leads the van, Kobe has exhibited a very excellently well, while Nagasaki's bulk of trade Kobe has improved from 47,434,218 year in 1891 to 51,993,916 ven in 1892, whereas Yokohama has gone at a bound from 78,523,708 yen in 1891 to 92.881.107 in 1892. THE COVERNOR'S REPLY. On the 20th in st., all the European Police condables and officers at Singapore were paraded at the Contral Police Station and the following ninute from II. H, the Governor, relating to the grievances of coetain members of the force as shown in a letter which appeared in the Glasgow Wail, was read over to the mon by the Chief

MEMORANDUM His Excellency the Greener has remarked with great displayance that, on two occasions recently, certain constables of the European Contingent, Straits Settlements Police Force, have ing false and misleading statements on the subservice. The first case occurred in Pounng in October last, and, on the 15th November, letter signed by twenty-five men appeared in ho Glasgow Daily Mail. More especially in the interest of the friends and relations of mon sarving in the Agaits Settlement, by whom the statements remarked on

The chief complaint is that the my is insufficient. The European Contingent was first established in 1881, when the pay of a constable was fixed at $4 a month. From the beginning of 1883, the Secretary of State for the Colonies, m the recommendation of Governor Sir F Weld, sanctioned allowaness in lies of rations at the rate of $10 a month per man, and, in the case of a mirried man. Stamonth for his wife and Starmonth for each child. In sanctioning these allowances. Lord Darby aid that they should sa isfy all the complaints f the European members of the Fore, and must be considered as definitely and finally setling their position.

The committee who, under the presidency of Major General Sir Charles Wirren, G.C.M.G. K.C.B., reported in 1890 on the efficiency of the Police Force of the Straits Settlements, stated that they had " no changes to propose regarding the pay now received by the European constables and sergeants." Of the twenty-five men who have signed the otter to the Glasgow Daily Mail, thirteen have ast completed one year's service. They were vernited in Glasgow mot by a subordinate officer, but by the Inspector General of Police personal communication with the Chief loustable. This is, in His Excellency's opinion sufficient guarantee that everything possible was done to give the men all such information is they might require about the service they wore about to join.

No prospect whatever can be held out that he scale of pay and allowances sanctioned by the Secretary of State will be increased, and no arguments founded upon the depreciation of silver (the liability of the dollar to flactuation having been fully explained at the time of engagement) can be listened to Unmarried constables, of whom there are generally about twenty-five in Singapore and twenty in Penang, mess together. They manage the affairs of their mess thems-lyen, and can obtain good and wholesome food at a reasonable rice. There is in Singapore a population of 25 Europeans of all classes, who are not precented from living and working in the colony by he fact that butcher's meatin the tropics is not equal in quality to prime joints in England. The oren have a canteon at which they can get wholesome beer and nerated waters at very low prices. Though, in one of the printed statements to which allusion has been made, it is said that " a glass of beer costs 40 cents and a bottle f lemonade 20 cents." the men who have put their names to that statement have, on suquiry, had to admit to the Colonial Secretary that they can obtain at their canteen a glass of beer for yearts, and a bottle of lemonade for 5 cents. At a first class hotel, the charges are for a quart pottle of beer 45 cents, for a pint bottle 25 cents, and for a bottle of lemonade 20 cents. But a constable should no more think of enterng a first class hotel for refreshment in Singapore than he would in Landon or Glasgow.

STREET DUTY. Under the printed "Conditions of Service" shown to every man before he engages, a. Constable has to perform eight hours duly in each

His Excellency regards as childish and utterly anworthy of any member of the Force, the comcroased pay.

For a single handed record in big game shooting we believe that the experience reconsted below is unrivalled. The following is a trunslation from the Dell Courant of the 11th Jan., which appropriately heads its paragraph " The ne plus uttra of sport":-

Dali has been visited accasionally by famous sportsmen, but not one of them has as yet made such a good bag as the native shikari Moestafar. The day before yesterday he met a female eleplant with a young one. He shot the mother and then caught the calf claphant and tried to fasten it to a tree. Whilst doing this it commenced to "trampet" so loudly that two large elephants appeared on the scene, coming to the rescue. There is a good story concerning Mr. Herbert Spender in the carrent number of Lippin cott's Magazine. His doctor once told him that it was not good enough for such a man as he to live alone, as his solitary meals were apt to be marrad by thinking too much of deep subjects. and advised him to stay awhile in a boardinghouse where the dinner talk would be conducted by cheery, brainless folk. He went, but did not stay. It came to his ears that the pleasant lady whose seat was next to him at the table was a sad disappointment. They will not be required to serve out of the colony and will be led by their own officers. In peace time, they are at liberty to leave at any time on 14 days notice; will only be under military commend
